DEVELOPING PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

The idea of permanent supportive housing to help take care of Los Angeles' homeless population is all over the news. In fact, voters approved Proposition HHH to fund such projects. Come hear from developers who have "feet on the ground" in the effort to actually build this kind of permanent supportive housing (PSH). Come learn what PSH is, see some examples, hear about various approaches to building and operating this kind of housing, and hear an examination of barriers to success. Then help us discuss the impact of the need on local communities.

Our panelists will be developers Dora Gallo, CEO of A Community of Friends and Lawry Meister, President of Flyaway Homes.
